The Site Steward Foundation conducted archaeological tours on BLM lands of San Juan County, Utah over 3 days during March 2015. The 13 tour participants were Cliff Evans, Richard Hayes, Stella Davidsen, Charles Koenig, Alston Lundgren, Christine Saridakis, Kay Lee, Debra Beeson, Joseph Arcure, Nancy Cella, Bill Cella, Adriana Kajon and Vickie Shields. Gary Newgent and Shelley Thompson guided the tour. All attendees stayed in motels in Blanding, Utah. The 4 high clearance vehicles driven by the group had no difficulty on the dirt roads and most sites required only a short hike over easy terrain. The two longest hikes were each about 3 miles round trip.

Day 1 - Thursday, March 19, 2015

Edge of Cedars Museum and tour with Marcia Simonis, museum guide. Visited Butler Wash Overlook, Target Ruin and Mule Canyon Towers.

Day 2 - Friday, March 20, 2015

Visited Procession Panel and Monarch Ruin. Group Dinner in Bluff at Twin Rocks Cafe with guest speaker, Don Simonis, BLM Archaeologist.

Day 3 - Saturday, March 21, 2015

Visited Butler Wash and San Juan River confluence petroglyphs, Wolfman Panel, Comb Wash and Lower Mule Canyon.
Target Ruin

Target Ruin hand prints and sandal patterns
Trail to Procession Panel

Procession Panel
Lower Mule Canyon